COMMUNITY BRIEFS

NuGenesis Farm obtains nonprofit status

Town of Delafield – NuGenesis Farm has achieved nonprofit tax-exempt status. NuGenesis Farm, N14 W29503 Silvernail Road, is a laboratory in the field focused on growing foods with the strongest disease prevention properties; conducting research to support this and improve community health; teaching communities how to grow these foods and make them widely available; and teaching individuals how to incorporate food as medicine into their daily lives.

To find out more about upcoming public classes, interact with diet professionals and physicians, discover Chef Jack Kaestner recipes and volunteer information, visit www.NuGenesisFarm.org.
